

A disturbance ensued and the police used their clubs, which was followed by revolver shots from the crowd.

The situation became decidedly alarming, but the firing brought reinforcements from the barracks and order was restored.

An attempt to rescue the arrested strikers while they were on their way to jail provoked another disturbance during which a number of persons were injured, though not seriously.

The federation orators are bitter in their denunciations of the political parties of Porto Rico and accuse the police of having incited the strikers to riot.

Quiet has been restored.

FRANCE CHARGED WITH VIOLATING NEUTRALITY.

"Protests Are Unavailing. Time For Action Has Come"— Japanese Papers.

TOKIO, April 18.—Discussing the presence of vessels of the Russian second Pacific squadron at Kamranh bay, on the east coast of French Indo-China, the Jiji Shimpo declares that the use of the island of Madagascar by the Russian squadron was a direct and prolonged violation of the principle of neutrality, but on account of the distance Japan in that instance simply lodged a protest.

The paper, however, insists that Russia is now using Kamranh bay as a base for action against her opponent, and she intends to use it as the point for effecting a junction with the remaining division of the squadron.

NOT NEUTRAL.
"If the use of Kamranh bay is continued," the Jiji Shimpo adds, "Japan must regard its neutrality as completely ignored, and Japan will not be obliged to respect its neutrality. Violations of neutrality in distant ports are not important, but when close to the zone of war, it is impossible to view them with the same leniency."

The Jiji Shimpo further declares that France is lending the Russians sufficient assistance, thus actually joining issue with Russia against Japan, and that it is now necessary for Japan to notify Great Britain and obtain her co-operation according to the terms of the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

"TIME FOR ACTION."
"Protests," the paper asserts, "are unavailing. The time for action has come."

The Nicht Nicht today says France has been a party to keeping the location of the Russian squadron a secret and adds that France does not observe the twenty-four hour rule, but, the paper adds, the spirit of neutrality affords no excuse for extending such hospitality to a belligerent squadron, and it expresses the hope that France will take steps to abide by her obligations and duties as a neutral power.

The Asahi Shimbun asserts that France has deliberately kept the presence of the Russian squadron a secret. The paper expresses regret at the fact and hopes the government of Japan will act decisively.

DENIAL COMES FROM FRENCH GOVERNMENT.

PARIS, April 18, 3:18 p. m.—The French government has taken every precaution to secure the observance of neutrality in French waters in Indo-China.

To this end instructions have been sent to M. Beau, Governor General of Indo-China, again calling his attention to the regulations concerning the observance of neutrality issued at the outset of the war. These are identical with the neutrality rules in force during the Spanish-American war.

It is believed Admiral de Jonquieres, commander of the French naval forces at Saigon, in proceeding to Kamranh bay, where part of the Russian Pacific squadron has been seen, is following the Governor General's instructions.

The latter were not the result of reports that Japan contemplated making representations on the subject, as no such action has thus far been ordered, and France has from the outset acted voluntarily in seeking to maintain the neutrality of her waters.

This, however, is incidentally difficult at remote points not connected by telegraph and far from opportunities for official communication. Nevertheless the instructions sent to M. Beau contemplate the full observance of neutrality.

CANNOT CONTROL.
It is probable that this has been made known to the Russian naval commander. However, it is impossible for France to anticipate or control the movements of the Russian squadron and she can only direct the Governor General to enforce the regular rules of neutrality.

The officials here have no information concerning the length or circumstances of the stay of the Russian vessels at Kamranh bay, and therefore they are unable to determine whether the ships are actually within the territorial limits of French waters.

NO OBSTACLES.
But in any event a temporary stop at such a point is not considered equivalent to using the locality as a naval base, but rather as being in the nature of an exigency incident to the voyage.

Concerning the statement in the Associated Press dispatch from Tokio yesterday that the international status of the waters of Kamranh bay might determine the question of Admiral Togo's attacking the Russians there, the official view prevails here that there are no international obstacles to prevent the Japanese adopting such tactics as their naval situation requires.

HAYWARDS WANTS STATE FARM

BOARD OF TRADE ASKED TO AID IN SECURING THE STATE PLANTING SPOT.

Haywards wants to secure the State Agricultural Park and would like to have the assistance of the Oakland Board of Trade in making a fight for the prize. These facts are set forth in the following letter, which was received today from the Haywards Board of Trade by Secretary Stearns of the Board of Trade of this city.

HAYWARDS, April 17, 1905.—The Haywards Board of Trade, in conjunction with the citizens of the city and locality, are earnestly endeavoring to have the proposed University Farm located in Alameda county and more particularly in the vicinity of Haywards. We believe this farm should be in Alameda county and by a united effort we can secure it. Haywards is the only part of the county making an effort to secure it, and we ask the co-operation and assistance of your body to aid us in securing it. We would be glad to have a committee of the Haywards Board of Trade visit you at any time and explain our ideas. We are certainly entitled to this because of our climate, locality, soil and because we are in the best county in the State.

"We trust you will stand in and help us. Yours very truly,
"GEO. W. KAVANAGH, Secretary."

VIOLENT BREAK IN PRICES

NORTHERN SECURITIES TAKE A TUMBLE IN CURB-STONE MARKET.

NEW YORK, April 18.—A violent break in the price of Northern Securities in the curb stock market today awakened fears of a forthcoming disappointment of the many speculative hopes, built on the plans for the dissolution of the company.

The stock sold at 181 at the opening, compared with 180-1-8 as the closing price last night.

It then appeared that there was no support for the stock, and sellers offered it down to 165 before meeting effective buying.

A rally of over ten points followed. St. Paul broke 2-5-8 and Union Pacific 2-3-8 on the stock exchange in sympathy.

It then rallied 2 and 1-1-8 respectively.

At the close Northern Securities was quoted at 171 bid and 171-1/4 asked.

In a circular issued late today the Northern Securities Company requests stockholders to deposit their shares without delay and announced that immediately upon the transfer of the books of the respective railway companies back dividends amounting to seven per cent on each share will be paid. It is also stated that no dividend has been declared by the Northern Securities Company since that of February 1, 1904.

WANT HARMONY AMERICANS ARE EXCLUDED IN SOCIETY

NEW YORK, April 18.—The general officers of the Equitable Life Assurance Society at their meeting here today adopted a report, submitted by a committee on resolutions, endorsing President Alexander, and favoring the mutualization of the society.

Soon after the meeting opened Mr. Alexander made an address and was followed by Mr. Hyde and Mr. Tarbell. The talk of all was confined strictly to the admonition that all concerned should work from now on for the best interests of the society.

When Mr. Hyde rose to speak he was hissed by a general agent of the society who is said to be the leader of last night's movement to engage Joseph H. Choate, now American Ambassador to Great Britain, to conduct an investigation on behalf of the agents into the society's affairs. Mr. Hyde remarked that any such reception really was a compliment, and proceeded with what he had to say, undisturbed by any incident. He said if he had done anything wrong, financially or otherwise, or had participated in any wrongdoing by others, he should be "kicked out," and if any other officers of the society had been guilty of wrong doing they should be thrown into the street.

Mr. Hyde, Vice-President Tarbell and President Alexander left after Mr. Hyde finished his address to the agents. As he was leaving the hotel Mr. Hyde said he would not return again to any conference of the agents unless he was sent for, in which event he would be very glad to respond.

In the course of his address to the agents, Mr. Hyde referred to the sale by Second Vice-President Tarbell of the latter's interest in his renewal account, and remarked that he hoped no agent would be called upon to sell his (the agent's) renewal interest.

Mr. Tarbell followed Mr. Hyde and explained the sale of his renewal account by saying that he contemplated the action six months ago. The records would show an estimate of the value of his renewal interest at that time. He declared that the society made several thousands on the transactions and got the best of the settlement. "That, turning out as it did," Mr. Tarbell said, "I may have sold my renewal interest, but I will never be called upon to put any money back into the treasury of the society."

This declaration was greeted with cheers. President Alexander, in his address, said he did not consider the occasion a proper one to make any mention of the subject of investigations by any committee, or to talk about personal matters, and he said that any personal controversy should have any place in the matter.

"I fully realize," he said, "that you gentlemen are responsible for agents. The fullness of its enormous surplus of eighty millions of dollars as its assets of more than four hundred millions. I want you to know that your interests will be safeguarded. I would shed my heart's blood to protect you and your interests. We realize that this is a very difficult work, but hope that we can make it easier before long."

PLEASE SHOW AT THE EMPIRE
Lewis and Schultz, an operatic duo, opened yesterday in a cleverly written sketch and jumped immediately into the favor of the two large audiences at the Empire Theater. Miss Schultz is a singer of rare ability, possessing a clear soprano voice of good quality and sweetness. She is ably assisted in the eccentricities of Mr. Lewis as the English duet.

Another good team is Beatty and Price. Their character change work was highly appreciated. Miss Hayden sang "Katie Kearney," an Irish love song, in her usually good manner. The pictures to this song are exceptionally pretty. Tom Thorne, an eccentric dancer and tramp comedian, made his initial appearance and was warmly received.

The Empire stock company closed the show in a roar of laughter. The motion pictures presents "Her Last Resource," a very interesting and new subject. The usual matinee during the week. Children five cents.

BAKERS MAY GO ON STRIKE

Thousands May Leave Work Because of Decision.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The decision of the United States Supreme Court against the constitutionality of the bakers' ten hour law will, it is feared, be followed by a strike of 55,000 bakers in the leading cities of the country. Frank H. Harzbecker, secretary of the Journeymen Bakers and Confectioners' International Union has declared, on learning of the decision, that there will be a fight all along the line if the bakers' demand for a ten hour day is refused on May 1st. All the union officials in this city declared there will be no let up in the fight for a ten hour day, despite the nullification of the State law.

In Greater New York an agreement between 3,000 journeymen and their employers expires May 1st. The bakers desire a renewal of the contract. The employers are willing to pay union wages, they say, but are opposed to any formal agreement, so that a strike is considered likely.

AMERICANS ARE EXCLUDED

FISHERMEN ORDERED TO KEEP OUT OF NEW FOUNDLAND WATERS.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., April 18.—The upper house of the colonial legislature has passed Premier Bon's bill excluding American fishermen from New Foundland waters.

The bill provides that American fishing vessels found within three miles of the coast of New Foundland with bait, supplies or outfit purchased at any port in the island shall be seized and forfeited, together with their cargoes. The task of proving that the supplies were purchased in New Foundland is made to devolve upon the captain of the vessel.

The bill was amended so as to permit the suspension of its operation at the discretion of the government. The vote on adoption of the measure was 13 to 12.

Some members advocated a permanent law to exclude all Americans and the abandonment of all reciprocity negotiations with the United States.

They argued in support of that plan that it would be more advantageous to New Foundland's fishing interests. The governor's assent to the bill is expected before the end of the week, permitting the enforcement of the new law.

The Pacific Railway Club held a meeting in Sacramento last Saturday night. The subject before the club was "Preservation of Timber."

Miss Swett said that the woman had come to her voluntarily and told her that she had bought the child and that she was not able to take care of it. There was no guarantee on the part of Mrs. Funke to take the child back and refund the money of the purchaser in case the child did not turn out satisfactorily, and she wanted the child taken by the Associated Charities and also wanted her name to be kept from the public. This Miss Swett agreed to do until the Judge's command to bring the woman into court tomorrow morning was made which she also promised to do. The case was continued until that time.

WOMAN WHO BOUGHT A CHILD SUMMONED

She Must Appear Before Judge and Give an Account of Her Dealings With Mrs. Funke

Tomorrow morning Miss Helen Swett, secretary of the Associated Charities must appear before Judge Waste with little Edna Robinson, a waif purchased from Mrs. Emma Funke of Alameda, and the woman who confessed to having paid $10 for the infant. Judge Waste said this morning that he would tolerate no shielding of a woman for such an offense and that he wished to learn more of Mrs. Funke's operations. "This traffic in human flesh makes my blood boil," said the Judge, "and if it is possible to stop it I shall endeavor to do it."

According to the opinion of Miss Swett Judge Waste has tackled a rather hard proposition and she counseled him that she did not believe that Mrs. Funke would tell him all the wickedness it is alleged she is guilty of. In extension of her own part in trying to shield the woman who bought the child Miss Swett said that the woman asked her not to tell who she was. Judge Waste pointed out to her that that same excuse is made by every criminal in the land and that if she worked along these lines in her position he was afraid she would come into conflict with the law.

Miss Swett said that the woman had come to her voluntarily and told her that she had bought the child and that she was not able to take care of it. ## COLONEL PRESTON IS DEAD

Well Known Attorney Succumbs Before Aid Arrives.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Col. Edgar F. Preston died last night at Portola Hall, his beautiful country home near Redwood City, from apoplexy. His demise was very sudden.

Colonel Preston was a prominent figure in State politics, a leader of the bar and most popular of clubmen. Twice he received gubernatorial honors and once aspired to the United States Senatorship from California, but his political aspirations were doomed to disappointment. The only position he ever occupied from the Government was when he served as Assistant City and County Attorney many years ago under Wellington C. Burnett.

Colonel Preston was born at New Orleans in 1849, and his parents came to this State when he was a child. He received his education in this city and entered the legal profession when a young man. His success was most brilliant and he amassed a considerable fortune. When Colonel Preston failed to receive the Republican nomination for Governor he stumped the State in behalf of his victorious opponent, Henry T. Gage.

As grand lecturer of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, Colonel Preston had a national name. He was very prominent in Masonic circles in this city, having held nearly every important position in his lodge. In club life Mr. Preston was very well known. He was one of the most prominent members of the Bohemian and the Pacific Union clubs.

Colonel Preston's death came without warning in the night. He had been playing cards earlier in the evening with members of his family and retired shortly before 11 o'clock. He was heard to fall in his room and when members of the family reached his apartment they found him lying upon the floor, breathing heavily. Dr. J. L. Ross of Redwood City was summoned and raced in an automobile to Colonel Preston's bedside, but life already had ebbed.

He deceased is survived by a widow and five children. Mrs. Worthington Ames and Mrs. Willard Drown, two of his daughters, are strikingly beautiful. They are very prominent socially, as also is their half-sister, Mrs. L. D. Owens. There are also two sons, Randolph, who is attending Columbia Law College at New York, and Frank, who is identified with Owens & Varnum.

The funeral will take place tomorrow from the Preston residence, Portola Hall. This is a magnificent country place at Woodside, near Redwood, and will be at Cypress Lawn cemetery. The service will be attended by fraternity friends and representatives of the bar of this city.

LATE MRS. FAIR'S MOTHER DIES

PLAINFIELD, N. J., April 17.—Mrs. Hannah Nelson, mother of the late Mrs. Charles L. Fair, died at her home in Newmarket today. She was at one time a "bushe" woman in a clothing factory here. With other heirs of Mrs. Fair, she brought suit for a portion of the big estate of Charles L. Fair, the wealthy Californian, after the death of both Mr. and Mrs. Fair in an automobile accident in France. The case was settled by agreement between the heirs.

COMPANY A IS AFTER ARMORY

Company A, Fifth Regiment Infantry, National Guard of California, is in consultation with the owners of a large lot at the northeast corner of Twentieth street and Telegraph avenue, regarding the location of its armory in a building which the capitalists in question propose to erect at that corner. The building would cost $100,000. The monthly rental of the armory will be $12, but the apartment will be one that may be rented for balls and other kinds of entertainments and from which the company can derive a revenue which will greatly reduce the monthly rental. The present armory of Company A is in a poor condition and the proprietor refuses to repair it. The company is therefore unable to rent it to outside parties and the members therefore come entirely out of the company's funds. Plans are now being prepared for the building in which the new armory will be located.

Captain E. G. Hunt, the popular commander of Company A, has been induced to become a candidate for the position of major in the Fifth Infantry. N. G. C., to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Major Fowler of this city. The election will take place in about three weeks, at which time there will also be an election to select a successor to Major D. B. Smith, commander of the second battalion of the same regiment.

RUSSIAN ADMIRAL SEEKS INFORMATION.

POARIS, April 18.—The officials here say that no government dispatches have been received. They have been privately informed that the Russian squadron was off the coast of India-China two days ago, but are positive that the squadron is now further north, probably sheltering along the coast of Annam. This locality is considered particularly dangerous, owing to the rocky coast, the currents and the prevalence of tropical storms.

The appearance of a case of beri-beri at Saigon causes apprehension as the malady resembles yellow fever and is similarly infectious.

The halt of the Russian squadron apparently was due to Admiral Rojestvensky's desire to have an opportunity to communicate with St. Petersburg and get information regarding the movements of the Japanese.

HE TAKES THE THIRD DEGREE

Trying to Recover Stolen Diamonds From Suspected Chinese.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Ah Sing, the Chinese servant arrested on suspicion of having robbed his employer, Mrs. Robert Tibbitts, the well-known society woman, of jewelry worth $5000, passed the morning in the "third degree" room at police headquarters. The Celestial was in the hands of Chief of Police Dinan and Captain of Detectives Burnett, and although uncommunicative, as the balance of his race, the officers believe that he will yet confess the commission of the crime.

It was shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning that Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tibbitts left their flat, 628 Steiner street, for a drive in Golden Gate Park. Before leaving the bureau drawer containing the family jewels was carefully locked, and Mrs. Tibbitts carried the key in her pocket. On their return it was discovered that the drawer in which the jewelry was concealed had been broken open and the contents, together with about $5 in cash, had been stolen. Not a clue was left by the robber.

Police headquarters was at once notified and Detectives Burnett and Matignon were detailed to make an investigation. They found that the only person who had access to the rooms was the Chinese cook, Ah Sing, and believing the job an inside one from their investigation, the officers took the Chinaman into custody. A Chinese cook, who is very friendly and who is employed in the adjoining flat, was also taken to the station, and the police felt that he had nothing to do with the crime, however, and the officers decided that only Sing should be held, as he maintained his innocence, and as none of the stolen jewelry was found in his possession it is believed he must have concealed the loot.

The following is the complete list of treasures stolen by the daylight thief:

A combined powder-box, looking-glass, comb and hairbrush, set with diamonds and rubies, valued at $750; diamond brooch, $450; diamond and opal ring, $450; diamond and diamond ring, $400; five-pearl ring, $300; ring set with three diamonds, $300; watch with pearl and dragon brooch, $200; ring cluster of pearls and diamonds, $150; opera glasses, $50, and a handsome jade ring.

KILLED IN A LIVELY BATTLE

SALONICA, Turkey, April 18.—A band of Bulgarians April 15th attacked the monastery of Athanas, near Kilkis, which was occupied by a Greek band. Fifteen Bulgarians were killed and the remainder fled to Saronivohina, to which place the Greeks pursued them, killing many and burning a number of houses.

An engagement between Turks and Albanians has been fought near Dirlizen. The Albanians were defeated with a loss of thirty men killed.

FINNISH CAPTAIN BLEW OUT GAS

NEW YORK, April 18.—Two Finnish sea captains, M. Sjolund and N. Burnquist, en route from their home port, Oresund, Finland, to Portland, Oregon, to take charge of vessels, were probably fatally overcome by gas today in the home for Scandinavian emigrants here. They are in a hospital in a serious condition.

Sjolund and Burnquist arrived here in the American liner St. Louis. It is believed the men blew out the gas when they retired last night.

WASHINGTON WINS FROM STANFORD

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—The colors of the University of Washington are today waving triumphantly over the cardinal of Stanford, as the northern crew managed to propel their shell in a mile faster than their opponents over the two-mile course at Sausalito this morning, thereby winning the race by one-half a boat length. It was a grand contest and interest was kept at a high pitch from the start to the finish.

At 11:30 a. m. the two crews lined up at the starting point opposite the Sausalito ferry station and promptly got under way for Sausalito. Washington won by a half length, covering the distance in 10:30. As the University of California decisively defeated the Washington crew on the estuary course Saturday, the latter's victory over Stanford gives the blue and gold the aquatic championship. It is to be regretted, however, that the two California universities did not meet on the water and settle the question between themselves.

SUICIDE IS IDENTIFIED

BERKELEY, April 18.—The wife of W. L. Day, this afternoon identified the body of the suicide who yesterday, on Sutro Heights, San Francisco, as that of her brother, F. W. Foster, who, until recently was a lighthouse tender in the U. S. Government service at the Philippines.

About two months ago falling eyesight caused Foster to return here and he had been making his home with his brother-in-law, W. L. Day, at 1304 Alameda street, Berkeley. Despondency over his inability to secure work is supposed to have caused Foster to end his life.

MURDER CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Ap. 18.—It has been definitely settled that Rosa Torturici, the wife of Pietro Torturici, who is charged with the murder of Biagio Vilardo, will be booked for complicity in the crime.

She was arrested yesterday and announced this morning that this step had been decided upon by the Police Department, and that unless something occurred within the next two days that would result in changing their plans, pretty Rosa Torturici would be booked on the prison register for complicity in the murder.

HE CUT HIS THROAT

A. J. Mason Takes His Life in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—A. J. Mason, a confidential clerk in the employ of the Northern Commercial Company, cut his throat with a razor in his apartment at the Manhattan Hotel some time during last night. His dead body was found this morning. Despondency is supposed to have been the cause.

NEWSPAPER MAN TO INSTRUCT

BERKELEY, Ap. 18.—Announcement was made at the University this morning that Hammond Lamont, managing editor of the New York Evening Post, has accepted the University's invitation to come to Berkeley for the summer session from June 20th to August 4th. Mr. Lamont spent last summer at Berkeley as an instructor in the summer school and scored so great a success that his return this summer was desired. He will lecture on the use of the English language and will give instruction in English composition with criticism of the written work of students.

This is expected to be particularly valuable as representing the point of view of a practical newspaper man and the manager of a great metropolitan daily paper.

Mr. Lamont is not only a successful newspaper editor, but he is also a brilliant lecturer at the University. He held the chair of rhetoric at Brown University for a number of years, and from 1885 to 1895 he was a member of the faculty of the department of English of Harvard University.

CONTEST OVER A SMALL ESTATE

A contest over the estate of the late Emily Alexander is about to be brought by the children of deceased, three of whom declare that their sister Gussie is trying to gain possession of the entire estate to the exclusion of themselves, the property being valued at about $11,000.

Papers are now being prepared by Attorney Fred Whitney on behalf of the children who will try and get what they claim is their just part of the estate.

In the will left by Mrs. Alexander, which is written in German, she leaves all of her estate to her daughter Gussie, if she remains unmarried and gives her a house for which she states she has a contract. Immediately after her death Gussie Alexander put a deed on record to a house on Telegraph avenue near Twenty-first street, worth about $4000 and her attorney, E. M. Rosenthal of San Jose, claims that by the will she is entitled to the remainder of the estate as it failed to state for how long she has to remain single and it is claimed that it means until her mother died.

Rosenthal is also a brother-in-law of Miss Gussie Alexander and by prosecuting her side of the case is in the position of excluding his wife and her three brothers Henry and Caesar and Gussie, which was completed by a Greek band. Fifteen Bulgarians were killed and the remainder fled to Saronivohina, to which place the Greeks pursued them, killing many and burning a number of houses.

An engagement between Turks and Albanians has been fought near Dirlizen. The Albanians were defeated with a loss of thirty men killed.

Burnquist, en route from their home port, Oresund, Finland, to Portland, Oregon, to take charge of vessels, were probably fatally overcome by gas today in the home for Scandinavian emigrants here. They are in a hospital in a serious condition.

Sjolund and Burnquist arrived here in the American liner St. Louis. It is believed the men blew out the gas when they retired last night.

WASHINGTON WINS FROM STANFORD

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—The colors of the University of Washington are today waving triumphantly over the cardinal of Stanford, as the northern crew managed to propel their shell in a mile faster than their opponents over the two-mile course at Sausalito this morning, thereby winning the race by one-half a boat length. It was a grand contest and interest was kept at a high pitch from the start to the finish.

At 11:30 a. m. the two crews lined up at the starting point opposite the Sausalito ferry station and promptly got under way for Sausalito. Washington won by a half length, covering the distance in 10:30. As the University of California decisively defeated the Washington crew on the estuary course Saturday, the latter's victory over Stanford gives the blue and gold the aquatic championship. It is to be regretted, however, that the two California universities did not meet on the water and settle the question between themselves.

FILES ANSWER IN REFINERY CASE

TOPEKA, Kansas, April 18.—Mellone and Galt as attorneys for Warden Jewett, filed Warden Jewett's answer in the oil refinery case, being the mandamus suit brought by Attorney General Coleman to compel State Treasurer Kelly and Warden Jewett to issue the oil refinery bonds.

Among other causes, the answer sets forth that the oil refinery law is unconstitutional for a number of reasons; that it does not directly appropriate the taxes provided therefore; that it creates a public debt which is not a public improvement, or an expense of government; and it makes the State a party to the work of internal improvement; that it is against the fourteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution, in that it interferes with private business; that the branch penitentiary is only a subterfuge and that the real object of the law is to build the oil refinery.

IN DUEL WITH A ROBBER

Saloonman Exchanges Shots With Thief, Who Escapes.

Three men and a daring robber were the principals in a hold up that has been reported to Sheriff Barnett.

The scene of the robbery was Paley's saloon, at Central Park on the San Leandro road.

Shortly after 9 o'clock last night the front door of the saloon opened and a man, who had the collar of a red sweater pulled over his face to conceal his features, walked in.

He had a cocked revolver in his hand and the two men who were in the place, James Hayes a customer, and James Brysdale the night bartender, were commanded to throw up their hands.

They obeyed and were compelled to range themselves against the wall while the bandit went to the cash register, emptied its contents into his pockets and then commanding the men to turn their faces to the wall, he proceeded to rifle the slot machine.

Just then I. S. Paley the proprietor of the place came to the door and the bandit sprang to the door and opened it open covering Paley with his revolver.

Then marching him over to the side of Hayes and Brysdale.

Paley was relieved of about $4 in cash and then the robber left the place.

Paley sprang for the bar, securing his revolver and rushing to the door but on opening it found himself looking into the muzzle of the bandit's revolver.

The robber started to run as soon as the doors were closed with the bartender Brysdale in pursuit.

He caught sight of the robber and began to fire at him. His shots however went wild and the bandit, seeing that Brysdale was gaining on him, dropped on his knee and fired twice, missing Brysdale and then resumed his flight.

Word was sent to Alameda and to Sheriff Barnett and all the available police were formed in a posse which has been diligently searching for the bandit.

The description of the robber corresponds to that of the shorter of the two robbers who held up John E. Daly and Frank Roche the Central Bank messengers and relieved them of $10,000.

The bandit is described as being about 5 feet 6 inches in height, heavy built, dark clothes, brown felt hat.

The Sheriff is confident that he will capture the robber soon.

GOOD SHOW AT THE BELL THEATRE

A splendid show of eight high class numbers greeted two large and enthusiastic audiences at the popular Bell Theater last night. The views of the Philippine Islands, the opening number on the bill were very much appreciated.

Manford and Hart in their sketch entitled "The Detective and the Maid" was well received. They are two clever people and their impersonation of two French dancers was well rendered and it was a splendid finish to their act.

Mr. Trowbridge an Oakland resident opened an engagement at the Bell Theater last night in pictured melodies.

Although he was a trifle nervous his friends were well represented in the audience and accorded him a hearty welcome. He has a good voice and as he gets more accustomed to the stage he will no doubt become a great favorite.

Ernie the man with one leg does feats that seem almost impossible. He is a quick worker, pleasant in appearance and he certainly made a tremendous hit last night.

The moving pictures are of the sensational order showing the hardships of Russians who have become exiles to Siberia. The scenes in this picture are very startling. It seems to please the audience and those who like sensational situations will not be disappointed in this great picture.

Clark and Temple, Western singers did their share in making the bill a good one. Their singing is splendid and from their actions can be seen at a glance that they are not novices in the show business.

Fanny Donovan introduces parodies on well known songs and made a decided hit and received numerous encores.

The three Voltas the closing number on the bill do some acrobatic work that is entirely new locally. Their act is a good one and makes a splendid finish to a good bill.

The maineases are very popular with ladies and children and are well attended. The admission for children at the afternoon matinees is five cents.

PACKED HOUSES AT THE NOVELTY

The new weekly program was given at the Novelty Theater last evening to two packed houses.

There was an entire change of bill, and those seen on the stage this week present something new in their respective acts.

Seaman and Rogers, a comedy sketch team are exceedingly clever. Master Slater comedian and monologue artist gives us something new in his work.

Mizuno the juggler and balancer is a wonder in his line.

Mrs. Jules Levy and her two children in their musical playlets, are very entertaining.

Some very difficult feats, that have not been seen here before, are done by Bending Bondia, the contortionist.

"The Escaped Lunatic" is the name of the new dramatized song, rendered by Walter Kerrick.

The biograph has some funny pictures this week which cause a great deal of merriment.

The Penny Arcade is open every afternoon and evening and there is a matinee in the theater and at least two evening performances.

The same excellent program will be given all this week.

IS BUT A FEW DAYS OFF

and the Easter Stock is ready for the final assault

This is the last week before Easter—one of the two busiest shopping weeks in the year. Last Easter the bigger Lace House had just been opened, many of the departments were not accustomed to the newer conditions and naturally, a little inconvenience was the result. But every wheel in the store machinery is running true this Easter; each department is keyed up to its highest pitch, and three continents have contributed of their best to our beautiful display of seasonable wearables for women.

Easter Gowns of Queenly Dignity

We're not much given to queen-worship, but we'll confess considerable admiration for the truly regal ideas that are expressed in this season's stunning tailored suits.

Of a dozen individual styles, there's no single one that can be called a prime favorite; suits with long coats, short coats and jackets of medium length are alike fashionable and many of the best models of each can be studied and admired in our Cloak and Suit Section.

The jackets of the suits with elaborate trimming are more popular than the severe models, but the plain skirted suit is more firmly entrenched than ever.

Tailored Suits that are right in styles, fabrics and colors... $17.50, $20.00 to $45.00

The fitting rooms are busy now—they will be more busy as Easter approaches. Don't put off choosing.

The Children's Easter

With the glad season comes all kinds of demands from the juvenile section of the family. But no more than we can satisfy, nor need they cost much.

CONFIRMATION DRESSES in many beautiful designs, some almost entirely made of lace, insertion and ruffles... $2.50, $3.75 and up

DAINTY CHRISTENING ROBES—Sweet and pretty as the little cherubs they're designed for... $2.00 to $13.50

PRETTY WASH DRESSES—In as great variety as the children who will wear them. The picture shows a clever dress made of good gingham with neat plaited effect and patent leather belt... $1.25

There are others, plainer or more fancy, priced 25c, 35c and up to $3.50.

An Easter Hat Beautiful, Exclusive

To crown the new costume.

Here you will find a department crowded with just such headwear. There's as much variety in hats as in flowers—indeed the two are very closely allied. Hundreds of pretty hats compare with those beautiful floral crowns that we read were prominent in an age less busy than our own.

It would seem to be impossible that there is an individual taste that cannot be satisfied in this department—teeming as it does with so much that is beautiful and original.

But if you should fail to find exactly what you want all ready to wear, you are still protected, for from the multitude of new shapes and untrimmed hats, and the limitless display of flowers, foliage and trimming, our clever milliners can certainly carry out your ideas to your entire satisfaction.

In values we challenge any Millinery Department or exclusive Millinery store anywhere around the bay.

Artistic Dress Hats begin in price at $5.00 and there are different grades—each of special merit... up to $22.50

In beautiful Ready-to-wear hats there is something stylish at $1.25 and there is good variety and value in all qualities up to $7.95

Children's Pretty Hats

This includes the swell headwear that will be found in the Millinery department, specially adapted for Misses and also the beautiful Lawn Hats in the Lillian department for the younger ones. The latter would seem to be the limit of how lawn, lace and insertion and ribbon can be artistically handled to heighten the beauty of childish faces. Prices... 50c, 75c and to $6.50

Boys' Smart Waists

These new waists and blouses for boys are the kind that help to induce boys to take pride in their personal appearance. There's style and quality to them. The exquisite white waists are most timely, too. Easter Sunday being so near.

The styles include mannish blouses, Russian blouses, white and pongee blouses and waists, and in prices they range from 25c, 50c, and up to $2.00.

MAYOR MOTT IS CONGRATULATED

TALIESIN EVANS PRAISES HIS DETERMINATION TO PUSH WATER SUITS.

Editor TRIBUNE—Allow me to congratulate Mayor Mott on the stand he is taking on the subject of the water suits. He is getting at the kernel of the case. If there were any honesty in the prosecution of the Contra Costa Water Company on the part of the special attorneys employed, they would have been decided long ago. It is four years since the Hart decision was rendered. Does any sane man, of ordinary intelligence, think for one minute that any one-horse lawyer who understood his business could not have brought the city's contention against the Contra Costa Water Company to an issue in one-tenth the time that has been consumed, if he were earnest in his efforts and honest in his convictions? How long will Oakland taxpayers remain blind to the fact that water is merely a political expedient, and they are the fools who are relied upon to keep it alive for the benefit of a coterie of unscrupulous political lawyers and professional politicians? Mayor Mott has uncovered the whole infamous game. The political lawyers have been bleeding the city these many years by raising water-rate issues that they have never intended should be expeditiously disposed of in court, and concerning the validity of which they have no positive convictions, and, as taxpayers, have been foolishly acquiescent while they have been drawing monthly fees from the public treasury for no services rendered. It is time that a halt should be called on the game, and I, for one, am glad that Mayor Mott has had the courage to call it. May be that we are being robbed by the water company, but we are certainly being robbed by the political lawyers and their ilk. Respectfully, TALIESIN EVANS.

STEEL MILL IN CHINA.
NEW YORK, April 18.—Important contracts have been closed for the American equipment of the first steel mill to be built in China and for Japanese steel wire drawing, rolling mill and blast furnace plants. A Cleveland, O., company secured the contract through its New York offices. The work entails an expenditure of upward of $3,000,000. The company, which is to build a plant in the vicinity of Shanghai, has ordered a lot of machinery, including an electrically operated furnace-charging equipment. The contract for the Japanese steel wire drawing mill is the first of its description ever let in the Far East. Another Japanese contract calls for all the machinery necessary to go in a large rolling mill and blast furnace plant to be built in connection with the Government arsenal at Kure.

HARRY BISHOP TELLS OF THE THEATERS.

Manager is Pleased

With the Wonderful Success of Ye Liberty.

Harry W. Bishop, proprietor of Ye Liberty Theater of this city and the Majestic Theater of San Francisco, has returned from a five weeks' visit to the East. During that time he visited a number of the principal cities in that section and witnessed a number of performances in the leading theaters of the country.

The trip was undertaken partly for business and partly for recreation, because Mr. Bishop must, of necessity, be in touch with those in the foremost ranks of the business of which he himself is an acknowledged leader, and, at the same time, find relaxation from the cares incidental to the successful management of two such playhouses and theatrical companies as those of the Majestic and Ye Liberty.

NOT A STRANGER.
Mr. Bishop is not a stranger in the theatrical circles of the East, because he has long been identified with the profession there, but his appearance was made there this year with an augmented lustre attending his name by reason of the phenomenal manner in which he has surmounted obstacles, overcome difficulties and revolutionized the stock theatrical business on the Pacific Coast, as is shown by the wonderful success of both Ye Liberty and Majestic Theaters. The fame of his achievement in this regard had gone before him, and the fact that he was the object of congratulation on the part of managers who had become familiar with his achievement. Manager Bishop chatted in a very pleasant manner last evening with a TRIBUNE reporter regarding his trip, and among other things said:

PLAYS AND PLAYERS.
"I stopped at Philadelphia and saw a magnificent revival of 'Humpty Dumpty,' that pantomime which, with George Fox in the part of the clown, was a great source of amusement when we were boys. It was made when I saw it a few days ago, an elaborate attraction. It was very much out of the ordinary, although it did not have, as in other times, any special star."

"In New York we saw a number of theatrical stars of intense brilliancy. Among them were Dave Warfield in 'The Music Master,' Mrs. Minnie Maddern Piske was seen in her latest characterization, 'Leah Kleschner,' a part in which she makes even stronger appeals to the appreciation of her auditors than she did in some of the characters which have made her famous. Her art is still of the highest and her magnetism seems to be irresistible among the people."

"We also saw 'The Strong Heart,' with Robert Edison in the star part, at the Hudson. This theater, by the way, is one of the prettiest in New York."

"At the New Amsterdam Theater, which is also beautiful and supposed to be the most expensive in New York, we saw 'Prince Consort,' with English actors in the roles."

"The Liberty we saw 'The Education of Mr. Pipp,' which is taken from the drawings now so familiar. I saw Lew Field in an awfully good comedy. We were present at a performance by Mrs. Leslie Carter in her latest success, 'Adrian.' The play was magnificently produced, although I did not like it as much as I did 'The Music Master,' which was charmingly performed."

MRS. FISKE.
"Mrs. Fiske's hold upon the people is very great. It affords me pleasure to announce that I have noticed that lady in a fine company to appear at the Majestic Theater in San Francisco for two weeks in June. This will be an excellent theatrical season, because Mrs. Fiske is not less popular in this city and San Francisco than she is in the East. I have not allowed anything to go backward. I have made arrangements for the production of a list of fine attractions, and I do not wish to name them now."

YE LIBERTY'S SUCCESS.
"I am very proud of the success of Ye Liberty and the way the public has taken hold of it and acknowledged it. I think of doing better than I am doing. In fact, I have improved everything as time has passed by. I have not allowed anything to go backward. I have made arrangements for the production of a list of fine attractions, and I do not wish to name them now."

THEATICAL TRUST.
Speaking of the theatrical trust, Mr. Bishop said:
"I am not a party to the fight. I am entirely independent of any trust."

"When asked if he had found any revolting stage piece that he could not give, he replied: 'There is a great saying in the handling alone. Oakland today is getting more for its money and more expensive company than any other city in the country.'"

"Mrs. Bishop went by way of New Orleans and we met in New York. While in New Orleans she went to the Grand Opera House, which is considered a very good stock house. She could not sit through the performance. She had to get up and walk out."

"My companies at the Majestic and Liberty alternate, and what San Francisco gets Oakland gets."

"I have been away five weeks. I got back Thursday. The trip did me a great deal of good. This is the first time I have been in New York in two years."

"Manfield is the most prominent actor in New York. He opened in the New Amsterdam the week after I left. He followed 'Prince Consort.'"

"I saw Mr. Keith's new house in Philadelphia. It is a magnificent one. It is intended for a very popular price. It is a million dollar theater."

MANAGER HARRY BISHOP.

In 'Leah Kleschner,' with the great New York cast.

"There are, of course, other independent actors and actresses, and those of them who come to San Francisco will probably look at the Majestic."

DEMAND OF PEOPLE.
"The theatrical season in New York I found to be satisfactory along certain lines. Good shows were doing good business, while indifferent and poor shows were doing a poor business. Of real prolonged successes there were very few. This may be, I think, due to the fact that the theaters have given the public so much poor stuff that the public starts away from them. They do not seem to realize that unless they give better plays, better stage setting, no matter at what price they play, they don't do business."

"The public demands more for its money than they have demanded in the past."

"At Chicago we made a stop on the way home, but it was mainly to visit friends."

THEATICAL TRUST.
Speaking of the theatrical trust, Mr. Bishop said:

III-Advised Act of Violence.

The agitation against Japanese immigration has already borne the fruit of violent and lawless action. In several isolated localities Japanese residents have been driven out by threats of white residents. No bodily injuries have been inflicted and no property destroyed, so far as we know, but the evictions will nevertheless furnish the basis for a compensatory demand on the part of the Japanese Government. Nor can our government deny satisfaction, because we are engaged by treaty to afford the Japanese the full protection of the laws.

The National Government is already committed to the policy of making financial amends for outrages perpetrated on foreigners by mobs. In the Rock Springs case a stiff sum was paid China as compensation for the loss of life and property and the personal injuries inflicted by a mob, which burned a Chinese settlement and drove away its inhabitants.

During President Harrison's administration the government compensated the families of the Italians hanged by a mob in New Orleans, and a money indemnity was paid for the lynching of other Italians in the interior of Louisiana.

Only recently the government paid a citizen of Mexico $500 in satisfaction for wounds inflicted by a Ranger in Texas. The Mexican was under arrest for a petty offense, and was shot by the Ranger while trying to escape. The Mexican government contended that the shooting was unnecessary and unjustifiable, and the State Department agreed, after an investigation, that such was the case. Our government is pushing a claim against Mexico on behalf of families of men slain and robbed in that country.

Men who band themselves together for the purpose of making lawless and violent demonstrations against the Japanese are only creating expense and embarrassment for our government without accomplishing the slightest result favorable to the exclusion of Japanese immigrants. A repetition of the violent outbreaks against the Chinese between 1877 and 1886 will not be tolerated, and should not. If the Japanese are to be prevented from coming here they must be excluded by act of Congress, not driven away by armed mobs. Nor will the popular movement against the Japanese on the Pacific Coast be respected or heeded in the East if it be accompanied by violent demonstrations, which will only give the people out here an evil reputation abroad.

The Republican and the Democrat of Fresno joined hands in support of the non-partisan ticket, which was snowed under at the recent election. Now they are disputing as to who killed Cock Robin. They had better let the dead past bury its dead.

Cases of Judas and Rockefeller.

In the twenty-seventh chapter of St. Matthew we read as follows: "Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the Chief Priests and elders, saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that."

"And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple and departed, and went and hanged himself.

"And the Chief Priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

"And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in."

Those who are debating the righteousness of taking John D. Rockefeller's money, to be devoted to righteous objects, may find instruction in this narrative from the Gospel. The priests who had paid Judas for his infamy refused to put the money in their treasury on the ground that it was tainted. It was the price of blood, they said (and they knew), but nevertheless they took it and devoted it to the worthy object of buying a cemetery in which to inter friendless strangers.

Did the use sanctify the money? The priests would not use it for ordinary religious purposes, but they did take and use it. However, it cannot be said that the priests were themselves righteous. They had been denounced by the Savior as hypocrites. He declared they had turned the Temple of the Lord into a den of thieves. Yet their pious hands recoiled from touching the money they had paid Judas for the betrayal of his Master. Judas returned it in repentance; they rejected it in hypocrisy.

The Corinthians questioned St. Paul as to the righteousness of eating meats from animals offered in idol worship, it being the custom of the priests to sell the carcasses after the animals had been slain as a sacrifice in idolatrous rites. The early Christians were concerned whether it was not wicked to eat the flesh of animals offered in heathen sacrifice.

The Apostle very plainly told the people of Corinth that the only question for them to consider was whether the meat was good. If it was good, he bade them eat it with a clear conscience, and not go conjuring up fanciful qualms about nothing in particular. He gave them to understand that the manufactured conscience was no guide for an earnest man to follow.

The story from St. Matthew and the teaching of St. Paul convey the same moral lesson. Both strike at the sin of hypocrisy and the vice of self-righteousness. If what Christ said about stoning the magdalen be applied to Rockefeller's case how many would have the face to spurn the gifts of the Standard Oil magnate? When clergymen are as honest with themselves as they are with their congregations they will perhaps have a broader appreciation of the spiritual philosophy of St. Paul's advice to the Corinthians.

Senator Mitchell of Oregon is making a strenuous effort to prove his innocence of accepting bribes by trying to show that two of the grand jurors who indicted him are not citizens of the United States. His defense is not of the convincing kind, however.

The Eastern woman who came to Los Angeles sick and shortly mustered up strength for a walk back to Pittsburg probably acted under the inspiration of the abnormal hotel bill and gall development of Southern California.

The expectation that the United States Government would inaugurate a cut-rate war with the trans-continental roads has been rudely shattered. Commissioner Shonts says the Government bought the Panama railroad to facilitate the construction of the canal not to compete in the transportation business. The proposition he states is a common sense one. Why it should have been taken for granted that the Government would use the Panama railroad as a weapon against the trans-continental roads passes understanding. Of course, the Government could unsettle the trans-continental freight business and throw all overland traffic into confusion, provided the Washington authorities decided to employ the Panama road as a punitive agent against the railway trunk lines traversing the continent, but what advantage would accrue from such action? It is to be presumed that the Government will not permit discrimination over the Panama line or operate it collusively with transportation corporations, and it is also to be presumed that it will make no effort to break down rates, provided there is no combination to extort excessive charges from shippers.

Perhaps the pranksome students of Stanford incarnated the big "C" at Berkeley under the impression that it was another evidence of the "yellow peril."

Dr. Brown's Address.

In his address to the workmen of Oakland, printed in yesterday's TRIBUNE, Rev. C. R. Brown struck boldly at the inhumanity and individual selfishness of our modern industrial system. It was a stirring protest against the wrongs inflicted by treating masses of men and women merely as material for exploiting for profit or instruments to be employed in such exploitation.

Dr. Brown asks the old question—old as the Pyramids and the Tower of Babel—if it is right to take the fruit of another's toil without rendering due compensation therefor. Taking the story of the captive Jews in Egypt and the Civil War in our own country growing out of the institution of human slavery as examples of the negative the Almighty has given, he lifts his voice against the commercialized philosophy of the age which divides society into two unequal classes—those with money and those who toil for wages. His words burn with indignation when he speaks of the way man is treated as a mere instrument of production instead of one to be served by production. In former times the idea was to make something for man; now the idea is that man was created to make something—not for himself, or of himself, but for the profit of somebody else. The mass of men and women are being yoked to a system of industrial slavery more remorseless and exacting than the world has ever before known—a system that wears out children ere they are yet grown and men and women when they have barely reached middle age. How true this is:

"Picture it all to yourselves! The demand for cheap goods so imperative, the insistence upon profits for the manufacturers so pre-emptory, the pace of industry so sharp, that men are thrown aside at 45! A well-known superintendent in the steel industry when questioned on this point said, frankly and bluntly: 'It is all true. The way we have to rush things now makes it necessary for us to get in a batch of men, work them out, and then get a fresh batch.' At the very time when their manhood ought to be in its glory, men in factories find themselves worn out and thrown aside for nimbler-fingered women and children, and compelled to sorrowfully take up the tasks of cooking and washing, of sweeping and mending, of bringing to the factory, with shame and mortification, the lunch for the wife and children now become the bread winners of the family!"

Dr. Brown's address sounds a note that rings a call to the best and highest in human nature and religious thought. It is the voice of one crying in the wilderness against a mode of race and soul suicide more deadly than any yet invented.

JUDGE SHIELDS AND THE JUSTICESHIP

"Knave," the San Francisco correspondent of the OAKLAND TRIBUNE, said in his letter published last Saturday night that Governor Pardee had offered Superior Judge Peter J. Shields, of Sacramento, an appointment to the new Appellate Bench, and that Judge Shields had declined it.

A Bee reporter called on Judge Shields this morning with reference to the statement of the San Francisco correspondent.

"You can say," said Judge Shields, "that the report is incorrect. I regret that such a report has been circulated, and want to say that it is no wise was authorized by me. The Governor did not do me the honor to offer me one of the judicial appointments, and of course I did not have an opportunity to decline any such offer."—Sacramento Bee.

IT IS SERIOUS
Some Oakland People
Fail to Realize the Seriousness

The constant aching of a bad back, the weariness, the tired feeling, the pains and aches of kidney disease are serious—if neglected. Dangerous urinary troubles follow. An Oakland citizen shows you how to avoid them:

Mrs. Peter Holme, 612 Sixth street, says: "Mr. Holme has gone to Alaska on a salmon fishing boat and will not return for some months. Shortly before he went away his back ached so he could not work, and I honestly believe it had not been for the use of Doan's Kidney Pills obtained at a drug store he would have been unable to make the journey. Mr. Holme had attacks of backache for many years. At first they were mild but with the passing of time they came more frequently and were much more acute. The last one was very severe, and when Doan's Kidney Pills stopped it and enabled him to return to work, to say we entertain a very high opinion of the preparation mildly expresses the facts."

THE LAND OF BLOW BUBBLES

His curls are like rings of red gold on his head.
His nose is as red as a cherry.
His cheeks are as round as an apple, and red.
His eyes full of mischief and merriment.
His heart is as true as a snowflake in air.
A fig for the whole of his troubles!
For he's my Boy Careless—you've seen him somewhere.
And he lives in the land of Blow Bubbles!

Now he's riding a stick that is legless and dead,
Through the lanes and across the sere stubbles.
For a stick is a horse with four legs and a head.
In that magic boy land of Blow Bubbles.
He hears at his side a sword cut from a bath.
With a big wooden gun on his shoulder.
And woe to the wild beast that crosses his path.
For never a huntsman was bolder.

Now down from his steel leaps Boy Careless in haste.
He drops on one knee in the stubbles.
For bubbles are woods full of wild beasts, all chased
To their death by the boys in Blow Bubbles.
His musket he brings to his shoulder and shoots.
The sound of it echoes and doubles.
For a make-believe gun kills the make-believe brutes.
In that magic boy land of Blow Bubbles.

Then out from the forest a savage all red
With blood-curling yell leaps to battle.
A thrust from the big wooden sword—he is dead.
With a most melancholy death rattle.
Then up from the ground lifts Boy Careless his horse.
And back over the all-trackless stubbles.
For it's many a mile to his cabin, of course.
In the magic boy land of Blow Bubbles.

Oh, joy to the lad in his make-believe ride
With the make-believe gun on his shoulder.
With the make-believe sword cut from his hip.
And a sigh from the heart that is older:
A whistle for Carl from the harp of his lips.
A fig for the whole of his troubles.
When he's off like the wind on his make-believe trips.
In that magic boy land of Blow Bubbles!

JOTTINGS FROM ABROAD

The Chinese astronomer predicted that the present year will last thirty-three years, and that four years hence Great Britain will be involved; but that, it is hardly necessary to say, was before the fall of Fort Arthur and the Battle of Mukden.

Something of a record has been established by a native of Ohio, who being, as usual, on his way to the academy, was buried, exhumed, identified, and on recovering consciousness, was promptly arrested on a charge of wife desertion, all within twenty-four hours. Under the circumstances, the final shock might have been postponed a little.

The Directors of the Royal Exchange, Sydney, are to be complimented on their energy and enterprise. Owing to their endeavors, Sydney has become the great wool market of Australasia, and she now possesses the finest wool salesroom in the world. A series of interesting exhibitions has been held in the Sydney Exchange within the past year for the purpose of directing attention to the natural resources of New South Wales. Chief among them, of course, was the Wool Exhibition, illustrated in the Graphic last week, which is now on its way to London, where it will probably be shown at the Royal Palace during the coming summer.

The bronze bust of Washington, presented by France to the people of the United States, was placed in the rotunda of the Capitol at Washington, and formally unveiled and accepted on February 22, the birthday of the Father of his Country. The bust is a replica of the one in the marble in the Capitol at Paris, and is the second the Congress has possessed, the first having been destroyed by fire in 1851.

The Krupp Company at Essen is now training out a new kind of man made of paper. They have half the lightness of forged steel, but are said to endure an equal strain. They are mounted on light carriages to be drawn by infantry. In Russia, houses are built of blocks of paper mache, and have proved to be as durable as stone. The pulp is compressed under great weight, that drives out all moisture and renders the mass as hard as flint.

Many different substances have been tried for making pavements, but only in one place in the world have the vertebrae of whales been used for the purpose. This curious pavement is to be found in Monterey, California, once the center of a considerable whaling trade. The bone pavement leads from the street to the west door of the church, and is in excellent condition in spite of its age.

The final results of the extensive nutrition investigation carried on at Yale University have now been made public. The object was to find the minimum amount of nutritious foods necessary to maintain a maximum amount of bodily health and efficiency, and the subjects of the experiment were divided into three groups: Men whose pursuits were chiefly intellectual, including two professors; a detail of soldiers from the United States Army, and a group of eight athletes from the Yale Gymnasium. The investigation lasted for many months, and the results show that the dietary standards given by the writers on nutrition are seriously at fault in respect to the amount of nutritious food required by active men. The subjects of this investigation, cut down their consumption of such food materials to at the most a half, and in some cases as little as one-third of the "standard" quantities. No inconvenience resulted, and in many cases there was a positive benefit, while in the case of the athletes the gain in strength was phenomenal although the men were living on what were practically half-rations.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

An English lawyer was cross-examining the plaintiff in a breach of promise case. "Was the defendant all the while promised to marry you perfectly sure?"

WOMAN DEFENDS THE SCOLD AND GIVES HER REASONS WHY

WOMAN PLEADS FOR THE HOUSEHOLD SCOLD.

"The Scolding Woman May Set You to Work As Soon As She Sees You" But She is Working Also--And For You.

Editor TRIBUNE—There is nothing which so chafes the soul of man, which so dampens the spirits of merry childhood, as the common household scold. The members of the family approach the home with dread, and leave it to battle with the outside world with unrefreshed vital energies and with discouraged hearts.

Not all the pride in a home immaculately kept, as it is quite sure to be by the Xantippes of all ages, not all the satisfaction derived from well-cooked and well-served meals, can render the heart of the modern no more than the ancient Socrates, light, or give him a good digestion.

Such a man is usually silent—the husband becomes a coward on his own hearthstone.

But, I wonder, did anyone ever try to analyze the characters of the two—the busy, active, scolding body, and the smiling, unruffled, languid woman, who sits in her easy chair or lolls upon the sofa in negligence, and sweetly asks, "Please do this," or "Please do that for me"—the moment you enter her presence.

The scolding woman may set you to work as soon as she sees you, but she is working, also—and for you.

The scold is unselfish. More often than otherwise it is her overwhelming zeal for your welfare which keeps her lashed into this perpetual foam.

The easy, lolling, smiling woman lives utterly for herself. Watch her day by day and see if it is not always, "Please"—she always says "Please."

She is rested and she can afford to do it. She is sweet for she gets all the honey of life. It is "Please do this for me," or, "Dearie, I want that, please," all the way through. It is forever something for her. Her life is made up of herself.

The scold, on the contrary, never thinks of herself. It is her husband, her children, and, perhaps, those in need outside her family who get all her thoughts, all her care, all her nerve force. She keeps none for herself. The scold wears herself out. Then her husband goes and takes an easy mate and wears himself out waiting on the new one, providing for all her wants, and with vain longings to have the old unselfish scold back again.

ROMANCE COMES FROM IRELAND.

DUBLIN, April 18.—A romance of half a century ago has been revived by a discovery at Inch Island, Dingle Bay, County Kerry.

A boy who was strolling across the island struck his foot against something sticking out of the ground. He stooped to see what it was. He had unearthed a human skull, and, full of fear, he fled incontinently from the spot.

He told his tidings and the police went to the place and began to dig. Two feet below the surface they found the skeleton of a full-grown woman, of medium height.

An inquest was held, but the jury could arrive at no decision. There was no evidence of identification, and there was nothing to show the circumstances of the woman's death.

And then there came back to the minds of the older islanders a memory which seemed to solve the mystery.

Fifty years ago, says the Irish Independent, there lived on Inch Island a man named Moriarty, who had the reputation of being much of a smuggler and not a little of a pirate.

He traded, without the co-operation of the revenue authorities, with a Spanish wine merchant, whose son frequently visited Moriarty.

During one of these visits he fell violently in love with Aileen Moriarty, who was also beloved by Murtagh O'Sullivan, the handsomest young lieutenant of her father in his illicit trade.

The Spaniard won Aileen's heart, and preparations were begun on a lavish scale for the wedding.

But when the marriage day dawned Aileen and Murtagh had vanished. For many days a feverish but ineffective search was made for them, and at length the young Spaniard sailed home bereft of his bride.

The island tongues were busy, and it was generally agreed that Murtagh had done Aileen to death and fled from the scene of his crime.

The story was told at the fireside on winter nights, and the ghost of Aileen came to corroborate it.

Wayfarers saw her wandering in the moonlight with a hilt of a dagger protruding from her breast. Others beheld her wraith at the spot where the skeleton was found, kneeling in her bridal robes.

Although the law is unsatisfied, the islanders of Inch are convinced that the remains are those of the murdered daughter of the smuggler.

fective than ever. These women insist upon something new in shirt waist sets, and they are so numerous that it has paid the trade to bring out some fetching novelties for the summer of 1905.

Japanese enamel work, set in silver and highly lacquered, is the choice of the exclusive girl. A set of diamond shaped studs has the porcelain blue background inlaid with an Oriental lady in an old rose dress, the enamel work being so skillfully wrought as to give the effect of a hand painted miniature. Small flower studs are also formed from this highly lacquered enamel, a little Marguerite in white and yellow colorings being particularly dainty.

Another expensive fancy of the up-to-date girl is to have little scenes under crystal for both studs and links. This is not a new idea, but pieces of the original work have an exceptional value at present. A valuable pair of cuff buttons belonging to a rare collection shows a duck under each convex crystal. Each of the white feathers stands out under this tiny lens, and the little painting, which was accomplished only with the aid of a microscope, is considerably enlarged. Modern crystal jewelry displays the brilliant colorings of hunting scenes or miniature heads of superb animals.

But Miladi Dainty pins her faith not to these costly and odd shirt waist sets but to the delicate studs and bars set with a single imitation stone. Among the most fascinating of these is a set of five gold pins holding each a small topaz, brilliant from its many sided cuttings, and including a large, strong clasp pin for the back of the belt, two smaller sized pins for fastening the cuffs, and three pins an inch in length with which to make secure the front of the waist. A compact red leather case keeps these five pins together when not in use. Single water pearls on gilt bars share the popularity of the topaz, and can be purchased most reasonably.

For cuff links a large individual stone on either end of a curving bar of gold plate is by all odds most practicable, and is the style of link in favor at present. Florentine enamel showing opalescent waves of old rose makes a rounding stone the size of a shilling on either end of a set of links. Pale pink coral stones are also much worn.

Among the grotesque shirt waist sets is the head of black cat with rhinestone eyes, and for mourning wear there comes a dainty blossom in jet with a pearl center.

TASTE REFLECTIVE

There is no doubt about it that the public and the milliners, or as it may be the dressmakers, mutually affect each other. A very critical clientele will educate a milliner or dressmaker, and there is no doubt about it that a very artistic dressmaker will educate her clientele.

I don't know how things work in Paris, whether the Parisians have educated their dressmakers or the dressmakers have educated them; and in the same way a milliner's clientele may so discourage her that she, sinking her own prejudices, deliberately buys impossible models, knowing that she will have impossible purchases. I was at such a milliner's the other day, and she said: "You have no idea what terrible things they want, what impossible models they will pounce upon, some women; and if I didn't buy these things I'd starve, along with the others, very possibly these customers would go away empty, and, of course, then my returns suffer and my firm is not satisfied."

Tailor-Made in Face Cloth

An excellent design for a black face cloth gown; it is trimmed in lines with military braid and "Frog" fastenings, while a touch of originality is the collar and cuffs of white spotted with black cloth. Plateau hat tipped forward by feathers.

THOUGHTS ON COURTSHIP Don't forget that while you are making love to a face you will live with a mind.

Before you quarrel always stop to consider whether you can afford it. Promise as much as you can perform, and as much more as she would like you to.

Love is a disease. See to it that you have an incurable case.—Twentieth Century Home.

"Tommy," said the teacher to a pupil in the juvenile class, "can you tell me what capital punishment is?" "Yes, ma'am," answered Tommy. "It's when a fellow is naughty and his mother locks him up in the pantry where there is lots of cake and jam."—Chicago News.

Cannot Get a House Because of Children.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The family of Michael J. Brady has been broken up and scattered about the city for nearly a month because no real estate agent will rent him a house or flat owing to the fact that he has seven children.

"It's not a case of race suicide, but race murder we have to face in New York," said Brady yesterday, as he gathered his family about him in the harness shop he owns at No. 512 West Thirty-eighth street.

"Ever since the 10th of March I have been hunting over this city from end to end for a home for my family, without success. I have gone to more than a hundred different places, but everywhere I have been turned away. A man with seven children had better kill off at least five of them if he wants any hope of finding a place to house his brood.

"Until March 10 my family lived in the rooms above my harness shop, but we were burned out on that date. My family has been broken up for the time being and I don't know when I can get them together again. I am living at the West Shore Hotel. My wife and five children are staying with Mrs. Minnie Lang, at No. 508 West Thirty-eighth street, and the two other children are living with Mrs. John Whalen, a sister of Mrs. Brady, at No. 532 Tenth avenue.

"I am willing to pay any reasonable amount of rent, and this consideration has not entered into the question at all. I can pay what may be asked by a landlord, but they won't rent me a flat or rooms anywhere.

"I have been to Greenpoint, to Brooklyn, to Jersey City and to Hoboken, and have traveled over half of Harlem without success."

iginal poems, Miss Ina Coolbrith; Miss Blanche Price at the piano.

Miss Coolbrith's original poem "California" received an enthusiastic encore, and the poet responded with the verses "If Only," at the conclusion of which she was presented with a beautiful bunch of California flowers.

Mr. A. E. McMillan sang the love song, with which he scored such a success in Misspah and generously responded to four encores. Mr. McMillan sings with exquisite feeling, and the club counted themselves particularly favored by his contribution to their program.

Among those present from this side of the bay were Mrs. Mille Scott Blyen, Mrs. Will Church, Mrs. A. Fielder, Mrs. H. Watson, Mrs. Ross, Misses Kennedy of Berkeley.

EBELL CLUB.

There was a splendid musical program this afternoon at Ebell and a full attendance of members to assist at the installation of officers for the coming year. The officers who assumed their duties today included President, Mrs. James B. Hume; vice-president, Mrs. M. C. Chapman; recording secretary, Miss Eva Powell; financial secretary, Miss Jennie Hill; treasurer, Miss Carrie Gorrell; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ralph Kinney; assistant secretary, Mrs. E. H. Benjamin; general curator, Mrs. John Bakewell.

The musical and dramatic entertainment followed the installation, and Mrs. Gordon Stolp was chairman of the afternoon.

Miss Lorena E. Hoag, instructor of the Voice Culture Section, had charge of the program, which was rendered mostly by her pupils, as follows: Reading, "A Special Providence" (Furman), by Mrs. Walter Carroll. Miss Alfrida Tibbets gave some vocal selections from Denza's "Call Me Back," "Red, Red Rose," by Hastings, and "The Spring Has Come," by White. Other readings were given by Miss Virginia Potter, Miss Lucia Oliver, Miss Florence Weeks and Miss Beulah Rohr.

Mrs. Stolp was assisted in receiving the guests by the following corte of club members: Mrs. John Bakewell, Mrs. A. H. Glascock, Mrs. T. T. Harrison, Mrs. M. J. Blue, Mrs. J. R. Scupham, Mrs. J. L. Crittenden, Mrs. D. E. Yorker, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. T. E. Wells, Mrs. Alfred Van der Ropp, Mrs. William L. Pattison, Mrs. E. H. Benjamin, Mrs. William Morris, Mrs. M. C. Chapman, Mrs. E. S. Hubbard, Mrs. Edgar Bishop, Miss Elizabeth Scupham, Miss Frear, Miss Vandergraw, Miss Cordie Bishop.

The decorations were a pretty feature of the affair, and were under the direction of Mrs. Edgar Stone, Mrs. W. G. Palmanter, Mrs. M. C. Chapman, Mrs. W. E. Sharon and Mrs. Charles T. Rodolph.

WILL BE HOSTESS.

Mrs. Henry A. Butters will entertain a group of San Francisco friends at a delightful little luncheon to be given on Wednesday, May 3, at Alta Vista. The guests will include Mrs. Frank Sullivan, Mrs. Jeremiah Sullivan, Mrs. Thomas J. Driscoll, Mrs. Bertha Welch, Mrs. Eugene Lent, Mrs. Alexander Loughborough, Mrs. Richard Tobin, Mrs. F. de Hittett and Miss Fernandez.

THE COURT.

(From Puck.)

The Emperor yesterday issued instructions to the Weather Bureau to let spring begin, and to continue the month of April on the calendar as usual. It has not yet been decided whether May or June will follow, but the chances are that for the present there will be no change.

It is a court secret that Prince Kermit is preparing a box of caramels stuffed with cayenne pepper and marshmallows filled with cotton to be sent to the Russian Ambassador on the 1st of April.

Charles, Marquis of Fairbanks, called upon the Emperor yesterday, but was received by the Equerries of the Imperial Saddlery, the Emperor at the time being engaged in the study of jiu-jitsu with Mr. Tackawhaska, the Japanese Envoy.

The report that Lord High Admiral Morton is prostrated with sea-sickness as a result of a midnight canoe trip on the Potomac with the Emperor is a malicious falsehood. Admiral Morton is a staunch sailor, as those who have crossed the North River with him on a ferryboat can readily attest.

Count von Pennypacker, Viceroy of Pennsylvania, has requested the Emperor's permission to hang sixteen Philadelphia editors and boil two cartoonists in oil for the crime of less Pennypacker. The request has been referred to the Emperor's Attorney-General, Lord Moody, of Massachusetts, with power.

A general order has been sent to the viceregal court at Utah stating that while the Emperor will be glad to receive the Dukes and Princes of Salt Lake City, they must not bring more than one of their Duchesses or Princesses at one time. This rule will be vigorously enforced during the reign of Theodore the First.

RAILROADS IN FRANCE.

In France the railways are mostly owned by companies. Yet not only are the charges for carrying freight stipulated by the Government, but the Government control is far more exacting than anything we have proposed. The public is satisfied, and the railways do not think of complaining, any more than express companies in the United States. Continental countries hold that under modern conditions the railroad is in the same relation to the public as a highway was in a century ago. The idea that the macadamized roads of France should be entirely in the control of private companies would be little more ridiculous to a Frenchman than that the railroads should be their own judge of rates.—Culler's Weekly.

OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF BABES.

Small Johnny was ambitious to become a street car conductor.

"Johnny," said a lady visitor, "are you going to be a civil engineer like your father when you grow up?" "No, ma'am," answered the little fellow. "I'm going to be a civil conductor."—Chicago News.

Little Fiddle, having lost a nickel, was crying, bitterly.

"My boy," said an old gentleman who had stopped to investigate, "you shouldn't cry that way."

"But I don't know how to cry any other way," sobbed the young man.—Chicago News.

Alameda's New Officials Take Office Last Night

CRAZY PLUMBER RUNS AMUCK ON STREETS.

Asks Friends For Money--Is Promptly Charged With Being Insane.

BERKELEY, April 18.—Believing that he is pursued by enemies who propose to ruin him financially and physically, James Corcoran, a prominent plumber of Berkeley, last night terrorized residents in the vicinity of his home at 1921 Center street, and today his friends took steps to secure his commitment to the insane asylum.

Corcoran went out on the streets last night, after smashing the windows of his home and thoroughly frightening the neighbors, and meeting a friend, said:

"I'm so glad to see you. I thought I was the only other man left on earth." Later Corcoran went through the business part of Berkeley, asking every man he met to loan him $10. It was decided then that he must be insane and preparations to commit him were begun. He was taken to Oakland, where an insanity complaint was sworn to.

Corcoran's financial troubles are believed to have unbalanced his mind. He claims to have been hounded by the plumbing inspector of Berkeley until he could not make a living. His wife and children live at San Bernardino, from which town he came here a year ago. He has never been able to send for them, and has lived alone.

ENDEAVORERS PLAN AN EXCURSION.

Christian Young People to Ride Through Golden Gate on Steamer "Queen."

BERKELEY, April 18.—The members of the Berkeley branch of the Alameda County Endeavor Union are taking a lively interest in the excursion to be given through the Golden Gate on Saturday, April 29. The Endeavorers have chartered the ocean steamer "Queen," and will take the excursionists through the Golden Gate to the Farallones, visiting the government prison on Alcatraz, the government light ship outside the heads, Fort Point, and on the return trip will skirt past the Cliff House and the Seal Rocks. The Farallones lie twenty miles outside the Gate in the Pacific Ocean. This will be the destination of the steamer.

The proceeds of the excursion will go toward the support of the Seamen's Rest and other charities maintained by the Endeavor Union. As this is a trip seldom undertaken by the young people, it is expected that many residents of Berkeley as well as Oakland and Alameda will take advantage of the opportunity offered to see the points of interest that cluster around the world-famed Golden Gate. Last Saturday the excursion committee of the Endeavorers visited Los Gatos as the guests of the Southern Pacific Company and as a result of the trip have announced that an excursion will be run under the auspices of the Alameda County Union to the new park that has been opened by the railroad company in the entrance to the Santa Cruz canyon just back of the little foothill town of Los Gatos. The picnic will take place on May 30. The committee of Endeavorers who visited the new park were George P. Lowell of Oakland, E. A. Fugitt of Berkeley, Dr. A. S. Kelly of Oakland, Henry Keller of Oakland and Percy Bliss. They were generously entertained by the Southern Pacific and completed the trip with a ride on the new suburban electric road through Los Gatos, Saratoga and San Jose. They report the new park one of the finest picnic grounds in the State.

NEW MEN TAKE OFFICE AT BERKELEY.

Thomas Rickard Re-elected President of the Town Trustees.

BERKELEY, April 18.—The new officials of Berkeley, elected to office at the election on April 10, filed their bonds last night with the Board of Town Trustees and were formally inducted into office. Trustees Shaad and Olsen were first introduced by their predecessors, Trustees Ryder and Dowd, who spoke of the pleasant relations maintained during their term of office, and bespoke for their successors the same courteous treatment and fair dealing they themselves had enjoyed. Brief speeches were made by the retiring and entering Trustees, and then the other officials were inducted into office.

Judge W. H. Waste read the oath of office to the following men and they were declared to be duly elected officials: Clerk Merrill, Attorney Johnson, Assessor Wharf, Engineer McClure, Treasurer Lord, Marshal Vollmer, Auditor Turner.

The new Board of Trustees organized by electing Thomas Rickard president, to succeed himself in the office. Trustee Shaad made the nomination, saying that President Rickard, although re-elected Trustee by a slight majority, would have been given an overwhelming majority had the entire town been allowed to vote for him. Trustee Shaad asked for the privilege of seconding the nomination. There were no other names proposed and President Rickard's election was by acclamation.

Trustee Connor moved that a vote of thanks to all the retiring officials of Berkeley be spread upon the minutes, which was ordered done.

A request from the East Side Berkeley Improvement Club for the removal of seeds on the Berry Bess tract was received. The Trustees decided that the matter was not within their province to decide, and the communication was ordered filed.

In connection with this matter, Trustee Shaad declared that there should be ordinances adopted defining the duties of the Board of Trustees in cases of this kind it could be determined whether he is responsible for the nuisance complained of. The matter was finally referred to the Street Committee.

Applications for positions on the police force were read from J. W. Virgin, Walter T. York, William A. Stewart, C. R. McGowan, A. Phelps, W. E. Atchison, J. O. Brown, L. Westcott, H. E. Jenson, John Lestrang, J. P. Farrar, B. O. Campbell and George R. Slater. Action upon these applications was deferred until a special meeting on Thursday night. The president was empowered to employ the deputies from day to day until such time as the new men are engaged.

BERKELEY, April 18.—A provisional cast for the senior extravaganza has been chosen, and regular rehearsals are now being held. A large number of women are taking part, but the committee is having considerable trouble in securing sufficient men for the chorus. At least 150 are needed, and so far only 30 have signed up. As the success of the show depends almost entirely on the strength of the chorus, the committee is taking strenuous measures to persuade more senior men to co-operate with them.

And many other painful and serious ailments from which most mothers suffer, can be avoided by the use of "Mother's Friend." This great remedy is a God-send to women, carrying them through their most critical ordeal with safety and no pain.

No woman who uses "Mother's Friend" need fear the suffering and danger incident to birth; for it robs the ordeal of its horror and insures safety to life of mother and child, and leaves her in a condition more favorable to speedy recovery. The child is also healthy, strong and good natured. Our book "Motherhood," is worth its weight in gold to every woman, and will be sent free in plain envelope by addressing application to Bradfield Regulator Co. Atlanta, Ga.

NEW CITY TRUSTEES OF ALAMEDA TAKE REINS OF OFFICE.

Retiring Members Make Parting Addresses and Welcome Successors--Committees Are Appointed.

ALAMEDA, April 18.—The Board of City Trustees that has served Alameda for the past two years went out of existence last night, and the board as re-composed by the recent election took seat. Before surrendering their places the old board completed the business before them. Bids on the street work on Alameda avenue and on Park street and for the construction of a bulkhead at the foot of Bay street were opened, and all referred to the City Attorney for a report at the next meeting. The election returns were canvassed, and W. J. Gorman, E. J. Probst and Fritz Boehmer declared duly elected.

When time came for the final adjournment of the board President Forderer said:

"I have little to say at this time. I have seen two Trustees go out and two successors come in in Alameda, this makes the seventh time. We have had good men, and men of action, as the records show; but we have had no better men than Mr. Combs and Mr. Hammond, whose terms of office expire tonight. They have not talked much; they are not orators, but when anything to do presented itself they did it."

"None of us have talked much. We have all been afraid of the reporters, but it may be we will have more talking in the future. I am glad of it."

"I am glad to have worked four years with such men as Messrs. Combs and Hammond. I do not think they received the credit they should from the press."

Trustee Bowers said: "I have served two years with Trustees Combs and Hammond with a great deal of pleasure, and the longer we worked together the better we worked for the attainment of an object. As to the unpleasant newspaper notoriety, you all know I got my share."

Trustees Combs and Hammond responded by thanking their fellow members of the board for their expressions and the pleasure of their associations during their term of office. The board then adjourned.

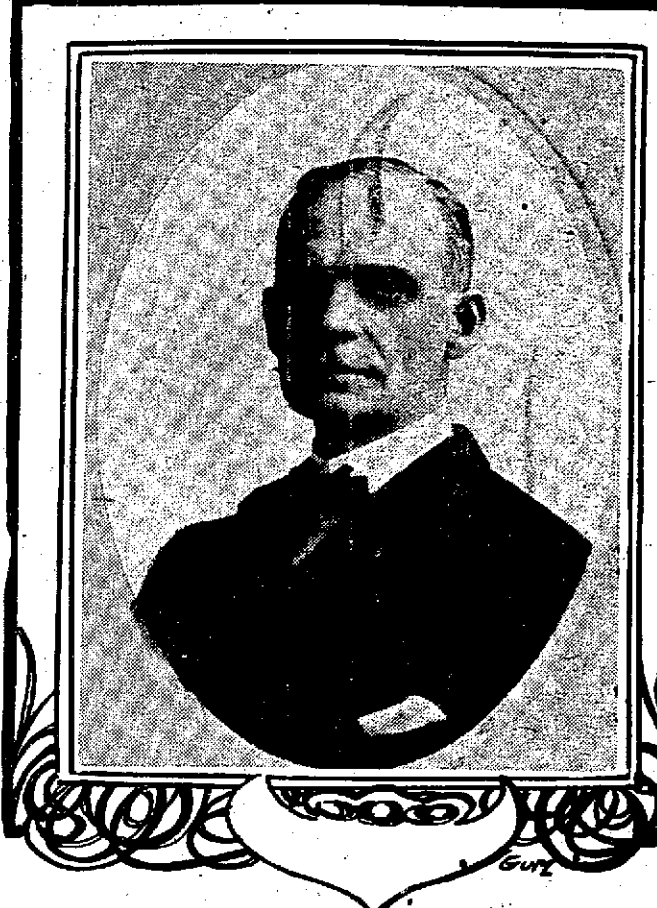

BOARD ORGANIZED.

The new board was organized, after the new members had been sworn in by City Clerk Gilgley, by the election of Mr. Bowers as temporary chairman, Mr. Gorman being then chosen permanent chairman with a vote of two to three, his selection, on motion of Mr. Forderer, being made unanimous.

In accepting the office Mr. Forderer said: "I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me, and promise in my rulings to treat you all just and right. To the reporters all we ask is that we be reported correctly; we will wear the brunt. To the taxpayers, we wish you to understand that at all times your presence at meetings and suggestions will be appreciated."

COMMITTEES.

Mr. Gorman then announced standing committees as follows: Judiciary—Gorman and Forderer; Finance and Electric Light—Forderer and Probst; Fire, Water, Public Health and Public Buildings—Probst and Forderer; Police, Licenses, Printing and Advertising—Bowers and Boehmer; Streets, Sewers and Wharves—Boehmer and Bowers. "This is quite a change in the previous order of things, the committees' duties being considerably changed by the placing of new departments in combination."

JOHN E. BAKER, ONE OF THE NEW SCHOOL DIRECTORS OF ALAMEDA.

The new board enters immediately into the settlement of a spirited fight—the matter of the location of a lumber yard and proposed planing mill by J. T. Montgomery. Mr. Montgomery proposes such a business on the corner of Encinal avenue and Walnut street, and he is opposed by the property owners and residents of the vicinity. A protest from twenty-five residents was presented to the board, as well as the objections of the Board of Education and the Alameda Advancement Association. W. H. L. Hynes, deputy district attorney and one of the protesters, spoke before the board, saying in part:

"We are willing to do what is right or reasonable in the matter, but we expect fairness and reasonableness in return. The mill—and I have it from Mr. Montgomery himself that if business warrants he will establish a mill—will be a positive detriment in this neighborhood, which is a solely residential district. It is true we have a small laundry there, but does it follow that the Board of Trustees should encourage or permit other detrimental things to be started there?"

"We are willing to reimburse Mr. Montgomery for whatever he is out. The owner of the premises has agreed to release him from the lease, so that he can not be injured in this manner. All we ask is fair play, and it is not fair to allow the establishment of such a business in such a neighborhood."

On motion of Mr. Forderer a resolution was passed to the effect that it is the sense of the board that the establishment of the mill at that place be prevented, and instructing the City Attorney to look up the law and see in what method this can be accomplished. Mr. Boehmer voted no to this.

On nomination of Trustee Probst members of the Board of Health were elected as follows: Dr. W. B. Stephens, Dr. A. Stafford, Dr. William Brooks, Dr. J. Emmet Clark and Dr. Harold Miller. The latter is the nominee of the West End Alameda Improvement Association. Dr. Stephens and Stafford are the only members of the old board reappointed.

A Day's News From the University Town

ALAMEDA PHYSICIANS MAKE COMPLAINT.

Object to Paying License For Automobiles—Educators to Meet Tonight.

ALAMEDA, April 18.—Local physicians who own automobiles, as well as others throughout the State, are considerably exercised over the interpretation placed upon the new auto law by Secretary of State Curry, who holds that by the terms of the statute every automobile owner must not only take out a license for each auto he may possess, but must wear, prominently displayed upon his person, a badge giving his license number.

The physicians object to wearing badges whose purport may be misconstrued, or whose glittering resplendency may make the meddlesome unduly conspicuous.

Dr. Henry May Pond of this city, ex-city trustee, is not backward in denouncing the law, as it is now interpreted. He is the president of the State Medical Society at its session this week in Riverside, when the physicians will see what measures can be employed for their protection.

It is urged that the intent of the law is to apply the badge provision only to machines or others who make a business of operating the machines, and not to professional men.

"Who wants to go about looking like a special policeman?" demanded one indignant local physician who owns his handsome auto. "Just fancy me parading around town, and going in to see my patients with a glittering badge on my coat as big as a saucer and bearing my number. There may be physicians who like to appear like the late 'Emperor' Norton of San Francisco, bespangled with badges, but not for mine! We are not hucksters, and we can get along without displaying our numbers."

BOARD OF EDUCATION TO MEET.

ALAMEDA, April 18.—Tonight the new Board of Education will hold its first session. The old board will convene, and the retiring members—A. Brown, Dr. W. K. Scott and Henry Michaels—will surrender their seats to the school-directors elect, who are Brainerd C. Brown, John E. Baker and William B. Stephens. It is understood that Mr. Frank Otis, who has served the board very faithfully as President, will be re-elected to the chairmanship for another year.

Brainerd C. Brown, one of the new members of the Board of Education, has taken a keen interest in educational matters in this city, and will enter upon his duties with characteristic vigor and intelligence. He is secretary of the Unitarian club, and for the past fourteen years has been the official stenographer for Judge Heacock, master in chancery of the United States Circuit Court. Mr. Brown was born in Vermont 60 years ago. He occupied positions of trust in Virginia City in the early Comstock days, and after coming to this State in 1868, spent five years in newspaper life on the San Francisco Call.

William B. Kollmer is a native San Franciscan, having been born in 1867. In 1894 he was admitted to the bar, and in 1895 he has resided in this city. Like Mr. Brown he has an interesting family, and his children attend the public schools here. He is a past master of the Native Sons, and also past president of the Alameda Unitarian Club.

Mr. J. E. Baker, who completes the complement of new school directors, has resided here with his family for many years, and is eminently fitted for the office. He is the President of the Bank of Alameda, and has for many years taken an active interest in public affairs. He is a trustee of the First Presbyterian church.

ELMHURST ITEMS OF INTEREST

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS ARE A SUCCESS—PERSONAL NOTES.

ELMHURST, April 18.—Evangelistic meetings have been held at the Methodist mission here the latter half of last week. They will be continued until Wednesday night, with the possibility of being kept up longer if the interest appear to make it worth while. Dr. A. J. Hanson, pastor of the San Leandro M. E. Church is conducting the services, assisted by several of the members of that church.

At every meeting last week and last night there was a good attendance, and it is thought that there will be several conversions to record when a decision is called for.

NEWS NOTES.

The Elmhurst Hotel was re-opened for business Sunday. It now is the property of J. Notchka, who has repaired and remodeled the building. It had been abandoned by the previous owners on account of lack of custom.

SAN LEANDRO CALL MEN WORK WITH APPARATUS—PERSONAL NOTES.

SAN LEANDRO, April 18.—Exercise with the hook and ladder apparatus occupied the attention of the members of the call fire department yesterday evening. Good time was made and a great increase in skill and effectiveness was shown. A business meeting followed the practice.

As yet the boys have to drag the heavy wagons by hand, but it is expected that before long the Town Trustees will see their way clear to buy a team of strong horses. They could be used to drag the apparatus in case of fire and at other times the Superintendent of Streets could find use for them in making improvements. It has been the custom to hire horses for a week during the season of repairing. The saving of this expense would, it is thought, more than pay for the cost of boarding the horses for the year.

COMING DANCES.

Mrs. W. Bottencourt and her dancing class are to give a ball next Saturday evening. The entertainment is to take place at the Town Hall, which the girls of the class will decorate with ferns and flowers during the afternoon. The dance is to be open to the public, which is cordially invited to be present. Varney's orchestra will provide the music. The dancing will last until one o'clock.

The last dance of the season will be given by the Saturday evening Cotillon club early next month. It is to be held in the U. P. E. C. Hall, probably on May 9th. Only members of the club are to be present.

At midnight there will be served a sumptuous banquet, which will be followed by speeches from all present.

The club was organized last autumn and has given four dances, all of which have been remarkably successful. Though discontinued during the summer it will be reorganized in the fall.

BERKELEY, April 18.—There is just now going on the sharpest kind of a fight over the appointment to the position of State minerologist, now held by Lewis E. Aubrey. The struggle involves the two great universities of California, the State Miners' Association and the United States Geological Survey. The aspirants for the position are many and of high position in the mining and scientific world. Mr. Aubrey is a candidate to succeed his chief, Mr. W. H. Ransome, one of California's greatest tulipade. Other candidates are Lewis Janin, E. H. Benjamin, H. W. Turner, W. H. Storms, Lewis Bond, Waldemar Lindgren and W. L. Watts, all prominent mining men and all having strong backing. The fight appears to be largely directed to defeating Louderback, who is considered the University candidate, as the charge has been brought up that Senator W. C. ## EAGLES HOLD JINKS AT LOCAL AERIE.

Good Fellowship is the Foundation of the Order--Excellent Program Carried Out.

The great regal bird known as "High Jinks," which is turned loose but once a month by the local order of Eagles, Oakland Aerie, No. 7, unfurled his wings last night, and the shadow of good fellowship and fraternity fell over the city, beginning at 8 o'clock in the evening and continuing until nearly all the inhabitants were wrapped in slumber.

More than 1,000 people, principally members of the San Francisco and Oakland Order of Eagles, took part in the festivities of the evening. The good time was started by the Oakland order, 500 strong, marching to the train to meet brother Eagles from San Francisco. There were about 300 in this aggregation.

These were escorted to the hall of the local lodge at the corner of Thirteenth and Clay streets. The procession was an impressive affair, as many of the local Eagles and some of the visiting members were in full regalia. The line of march was up Broadway and to the hall. The parade was fully five blocks in length, the Eagles marching four abreast, preceded by a band.

When the members and guests assembled at the headquarters a season of amusement and entertainment was begun, which will be remembered for many a month, by those fortunate enough to have been there. There was no formal program, but the entertainment was of the impromptu order, and was all the more delightful.

Great care and preparation was made to have the evening a success, and the committees in charge of the work had the satisfaction of hearing the comment from a hundred lips that it was the best high jinks that the order had ever given. The hall will comfortably hold 1,000 people and its capacity was taxed to the utmost.

The credit of the splendid program and its successful conclusion belongs to William B. Smith, who acted as master of ceremonies, President Charles J. Harrington and William J. Callahan and Samuel H. Short.

The evening's fun started with a mock trial of M. J. Hallahan, the local politician. There was a real policeman and a real patrol wagon in the scene.

William Howlett made the arrest, Charles Neil sat on the case in the capacity of judge and handed out justice, assisted by Supervisor Joseph Kelley, Lee Murphy and Joe McElroy as a jury. Hallahan was found guilty of carrying a concealed weapon and memories of his incarceration in the city Bastille just one month ago on the same charge were recalled. The next on the program was a song by Matt Marlow, of the San Francisco Aerie, No. 5. The song was appreciated exceedingly. This effort was followed by witty stories by Silvery Newman, also of San Francisco Aerie, No. 5. The stories put the vast audience in a good frame of mind, and the next number on the program, the songs of Fred Scanlan, also of the San Francisco order, were much appreciated.

The next number on the program was unique. It was the drumming of Johnny Bruck, the youngest drummer in the world. His work was pronounced phenomenal by all who heard the little fellow, who acts as the mascot of the San Francisco Aerie.

The audience next listened to the remarks of John Perry, president of Aerie No. 5. His address was of the stirring kind and appealed to the human and fraternal side of every one present.

The next features were two clever sparring exhibitions between Instructor Eddie Smith of the Reliance Athletic Club and Ed Warren, and between Lowring Brown and Charles Peterson, also of the Reliance Club.

Mr. Carson of the Empire theater made a brief address.

J. J. Dignan of Seattle Aerie, No. 1, made a speech which thrilled his hearers. He talked on the good of the order, and made several witty and brilliant sallies. When he spoke of the fraternity and brotherhood of the order the applause was long and vigorous.

Barney Bernard, the star Hebrew impersonator, and Ben Jacobs delighted the audience with their stories.

Hayden and Martin, a clever singing team at the Empire, gave the members present a delightful few moments by rendering several popular selections.

Miss Hayden possesses a wonderful contralto voice, and was encored time and again.

The refreshments, were of the kind that cheered but did not inebriate. Potatoes, beans, sandwiches, cigars, cigarettes and beer in mugs constituted part of the menu.

The evening of entertainment, sociability and good fellowship came to a close at 12 o'clock, and all went home with the satisfaction of having spent an evening which will linger fondly in their memories.

VOLCANO QUIET.

NEW YORK, April 18.—No activity has been manifested by the Soufriere volcano in the last twenty-four hours, cables the Herald's St. Vincent correspondent. It is believed that the volcano has entered upon a period of quiet. Reports from Fort de France, Martinique say that Mont Pelée, which on April 13 and 14 showed signs of renewed activity, has again become quiet.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Mayor Mott Wants the Lively Discussion Over the Granting of a Saloon License.

Street Work Ordered and Petitions Filed at Session Last Night.

At a meeting of the City Council last night President Fitzgerald appointed a committee of three, Councilmen Meese, McAdam and Donaldson, to confer with the Board of Works relative to putting wires at all descriptions under ground. There were present at the meeting Councilmen Atkinson, Baccus, Elliot, Burns, Meese, McAdam, Pendleton, Thornton, Hahn and President Fitzgerald.

Mayor Mott, appointed as the request of Mayor Mott who states it as his belief that in the very near future the great innovation can be accomplished. The committee will get to work at once and will outline some definite plan of action.

OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS. Besides the recommendation of a committee to assist the Board of Works in the matter of laying underground wires, Mayor Mott requested that the City Attorney and the special attorneys in the water rate suits both in the State and Circuit Court, should file a statement of the status of the cases.

Mayor Mott further asked the special attorneys in the matter of the water front litigation, wherein the city claimed thirty-three streets and only got five, be requested to submit a report as to the progress.

NO PATROL DRIVER. The Council failed last night to pass the ordinance appointing an extra patrol driver and the matter was referred to the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee.

Councilman Elliot wished the ordinance passed at once but the majority of the Council favored sending it to the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee.

JOHNS GETS LICENSE. The protest against allowing Frank Johns to move his saloon from Fifth and Brush to 501 Brush street brought out a heated discussion between Councilmen Elliot, Baccus, Meese and Burns.

The license committee recommended that he be allowed to move and when the matter came up before the meeting Councilman Elliot said:

"Mr. Chairman, I am opposed to granting this license in face of the protest made the other evening before the committee. A mother came in a room filled with men and objected to this saloon because it comes near her home."

"I believe she should be listened to. This city is loaded with saloons. I use them but where there is a bona fide protest I think the license should not be granted."

Baccus: "I would like to ask Mr. Elliot if he knows how far this saloon is to be moved; how long it has been in that neighborhood, and why Mr. Johns wants to leave his old location?"

Elliot: "I don't care. This woman has protested and this is enough for me."

Baccus: "This saloon has been at Fifth and Brush street for thirty years. The proprietor only wants to move the building one block, which is not out of the neighborhood and he is only doing this because his rent has been raised from $20 to $40 a month. Under these circumstances I think he should be allowed to make the change."

Meese: "I can't agree with Mr. Elliot on this question. I am not in favor of increasing the number of saloons in this city, but in this case this is not a new saloon, but simply a change."

Burns: "If Mr. Elliot had gone down in that neighborhood and investigated as I did I do not believe he would come here and ridicule people on their votes. I went all through that neighborhood and the change is not objected to."

Elliot: "It cannot be expected that this Councilman has time to make a personal investigation of every license. He should wait until the evidence comes before him."

The motion to allow Johns to make the move was then put and carried, with Elliot and Pendleton voting against it.

OUTLET SEWERS. City Engineer Turner sent the following communication to the City Council relative to the Outlet Sewers in East Oakland:

"The Honorable the City Council of the City of Oakland, Gentlemen: The proposed outlet for the sewers of Eighth, Ninth and Tenth avenues will cross a strip of tide land west of Eleventh avenue extended, and between the Southern Pacific Company's tracks and the United States bulkhead line. This land is claimed by E. C. Sessions Jr."

"A representative of Mr. Sessions stated that he would object to the city building a sewer across said land without first obtaining a right of way deed. Mr. Sessions and other parties interested in said land will give a right of way deed when requested, but I have hesitated to do so, as by requesting and getting a right of way deed over said land, it would interfere with the city's suit for title to said land."

"I respectfully submit this matter for your consideration."

"Yours Very Truly," "F. C. TURNER," "City Engineer."

EXPERT'S PAY. In the following letter to the Council Mayor Mott recommended that the claim of Expert C. D. Stuart be allowed:

"To the Honorable the City Council of the City of Oakland, Gentlemen: I herewith transmit to your honorable body the claim of Mr. C. D. Stuart, the services of an expert accountant which were approved by Ex-Mayor Olney, who engaged him. Mr. Olney calls attention to the fact that this bill is a little more than half of what the city has heretofore paid for similar services. Trusting you will give this your prompt attention, I have the honor to remain," "Yours Very Truly," "FRANK K. MOTT, Mayor."

Referred to, Auditing and Finance Committee.

MAYOR'S MESSAGES. The following are the messages from Mayor Mott to the Council last night: "Oakland, Cal., April 17, 1905.—To the honorable, the City Council of the City of Oakland—Gentlemen: I have

STOP! WOMEN,

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with woman's diseases covers a great many years. You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman whose status has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepted this invitation. Note the result.

First letter.
"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"For eight years I have suffered something terrible every month with my periods. The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have ovarian and uterine trouble, and I must go through an operation if I want to get well. I do not want to submit to it if I can possibly help it. Please tell me what to do. I hope you can relieve me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 504 and E. Capitol Sts., Benning P.O., Washington, D.C.
Second letter.
"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"After following carefully your advice, and taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very anxious to send you my testimonial, that others may know their value and what you have done for me."

"As you know, I wrote you that my doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I then wrote you, telling you my ailments. I followed your advice and am entirely well. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I owe my life to you, and to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wish every suffering woman would read this testimonial and realize the value of writing to you and your remedy."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 504 and E. Capitol Sts., Benning P.O., Washington, D.C.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women whose testimony is so unquestionable, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

HARRIMAN WILL RETIRE

HILL MEN DO NOT WANT HIM IN NORTHERN SECURITIES COMPANY.

NEW YORK, April 18.—General readjustment in the personnel of the Northwestern railroad directorates concerned in the Northern Securities discussion is soon to take place, according to the Times. This is understood to have been found necessary in order to comply with the decision of the Supreme Court, under which it is believed that one man cannot be a director in two parallel and competing companies.

This discovery upsets one of the working methods of the community of interest plan under which practically the same board of directors controlled a large number of systems and, while it is not believed that the decision will do away with this altogether, financiers say it will make the control of such boards of directors much more difficult.

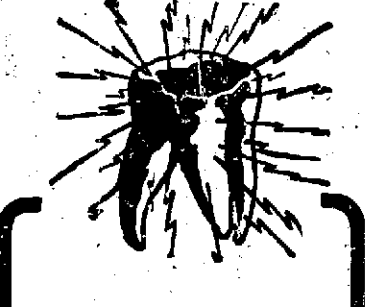

One of the first changes scheduled to take place will be in the board of the Northern Pacific Railroad at the annual meeting May 18 next. This will be the first meeting held by the stockholders of that road in two years and a half, because of the injunction preventing the voting of the stock held by the Northern Securities Company, without which there was never a quorum. James J. Hill resigned from the board some time ago, because he believed it illegal for one man to sit as a director of competing lines.

The Hill interests are said to make no secret of their intention not to re-elect E. H. Harriman, and the latter interests admit that they expect that Mr. Harriman will fail of re-election. It is said that the views held by Mr. Hill are also now maintained by the Rockefeller interests, and that for this reason there will in the near future be many changes in board memberships.

If the decision of the western interests is carried further there may be a re-arrangement of the directors of many of the Eastern railroads which are competitors and whose boards are composed of practically the same men.

All this, of course, will not necessarily mean the end of community of interest idea, but that the old plan of having boards of directors as nearly identical as possible will have to be abandoned.

SUIT SETTLED. CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., April 18.—The million-dollar damage suit brought by the Morning Glory Mining and Leasing Company against the Mary McKinnon Company has been settled by the payment of a little over $100,000 by the defendant to the plaintiff in full settlement for all claims. The plaintiff was recently awarded judgment for $164,000 and an appeal taken by the defendant. The decision of the court was based upon facts taken from the property of the plaintiff.
